

COMPOUND & COMPLEX

FALL Sentence BUILDING

Name Jessica

Build it, Read it, Write it!

(A)

Deciduous trees have leaves that fall, but evergreen trees keep their foliage all year.

Apple picking is popular in September and we make applesauce from baskets of delicious red apples.

Billy exclaimed, "We're going to the pumpkin patch today, and I want to ride the haystack ride!"

I checked my writing for:

- capital letters → The
- good spelling
- punctuation marks → (, . ! ?)

Included are 2 types of sentences COMPOUND & COMPLEX

FALL Build and Write SENTENCES

image	page	compound sentences	image	page	compound sentences
	1 or A	Deciduous trees have leaves that fall, but evergreen trees keep their foliage all year.		7 or C	Jack-o-lanterns are like pumpkins, but these silly pumpkins have funny faces.

FALL Build and Write SENTENCES

image	page	complex sentences	image	page	complex sentences
	1 or A	Despite their green color during the summer and spring months, leaves change to many colors during fall.		7 or C	Whenever it gets close to Halloween, my family likes to carve pumpkins.
	2 or A	Whenever my family goes to the apple orchard, we order glasses of hot apple cider.		8 or C	"I get the most candy on Halloween because I am so polite," Peggy smiled.
	3 or A	Mom let us each get a pumpkin because we were well-behaved at the pumpkin patch.		9 or C	While my mom hands out candy to kids in costumes, my dad takes us trick-or-treating.
	4 or B	While acorns are generally safe to eat for humans, they aren't the tastiest nut.		10 or D	Because they were seeking religious freedom, the Pilgrims came from England to the "New World".
	5 or B	The scarecrow will stand upright until it loses too much of its hay stuffing.		11 or D	Laura enjoyed turkey on Thanksgiving while her brother Bob had a delicious slice of ham.
	6 or B	"After the team scores, make sure to cheer," the coach told the crowd.		12 or D	"Before you enjoy your pumpkin pie, eat your turkey and stuffing," Grandma said.

OPTION 1: Students build, read, and record (compound or complex) sentences. Then self-edit using the checklist.

Billy <small>compound</small>	exclaimed, <small>compound</small>	"We're <small>compound</small>	going <small>compound</small>	to <small>compound</small>
the <small>compound</small>	pumpkin <small>compound</small>	patch <small>compound</small>	today, <small>compound</small>	and <small>compound</small>
I <small>compound</small>	want <small>compound</small>	to <small>compound</small>	ride <small>compound</small>	the <small>compound</small> ride!" <small>compound</small> haystack <small>compound</small>

Name Jessica

Build it, Read it, Write it!

(A)

Deciduous trees have leaves that fall, but evergreen trees keep their foliage all year.

Apple picking is popular in September and we make applesauce from baskets of delicious red apples.

Billy exclaimed, "We're going to the pumpkin patch today, and I want to ride the haystack ride!"

I checked my writing for:

- capital letters → The
- good spelling
- punctuation marks → (, . ! ?)

OPTION 2: Students build & record a (compound or complex) sentence. Then they use the sentence as the beginning of a short story. Finally, students self-edit using the checklist.

Name Josh

Build & Write a Story! ②
Directions: Build the sentence and write it below correctly making sure to use proper punctuation. Then use this sentence as the start of a short story with descriptive details.

Apple picking is popular in September, and we make applesauce from our baskets of delicious red apples. My family loves to go to Applecrest Farm and

-  I checked my writing for:
- capital letters → The
 - good spelling
 - punctuation marks → (...!?)
 - excellent story details